THE STATE OF UTAH TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANT:

A complaint has been made by Wade A. Farraway, Assistant Attorney General, that you committed the crimes of:

COUNT I

UNLAWFUL DEALING OF PROPERTY BY A FIDUCIARY, a Second Degree Felony, in violation of Utah Code Ann. § 76-6-513(2) and/or (3)(a), (1995, as amended), at Salt Lake County, Utah, on or between February, 2000, and February, 2003, in that the defendant, JUDY GIBSON, a party to the offense, did knowingly or intentionally deal with property that had been entrusted to her as a fiduciary, or property of a governmental entity, public monies, or of a financial institution, in a manner which she knew was a violation of her duty and which involved substantial risk of loss or detriment to the owner or to a person for whose benefit the property was entrusted; and/or acting as a fiduciary, without permission of the owner of the property or some other person with authority to give permission, pledged as collateral for a personal loan, or as collateral for the benefit of some party, other than the owner or the person for whose benefit the property was entrusted, the property that has been entrusted to the fiduciary; to-wit: defendant took monies entrusted to her and mismanaged them and used a power of attorney to secure a loan against Melba Wisdom's property without her permission. These acts involved a substantial figure of loss of over $5,000.00 to Melba Wisdom.

COUNT II

THEFT BY DECEPTION, a Second Degree Felony, in violation of Title 76, Chapter 6, Section 405, Utah Code Ann. (1973, as amended), in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, on or about October 8, 2003, in that the defendant, JUDY GIBSON, a party to the offense, did knowingly or intentionally commit theft by deception

by obtaining or exercising control of another by deception and with a purpose to deprive him thereof; to-wit: defendant used an invalid power of attorney to secure a $93,000.00 loan against Melba Wisdom's home. The value of the credit, goods, services, or any other thing of value was or exceeded $5,000.00.
